This is "Purgatory."
The world where those who have committed suicide, come together.
Chapter 3

In here, we kill,
we get killed,
and we keep on dying.

Enjoy.

Chapter 3: Punishment for Doubt
I'm pretty confident in my ability to make black tea!

クイッ
……
Well, Does it suit your taste?
This black tea...
It tastes great, doesn't it?
How did you make it?

These leaves don't seem old, either.
You'd need electricity or gas at the very least, right?
And obviously, water too.
Reality is, I haven't seen a single person until I came to this store.
Only people who have committed suicide reside in Purgatory!
What's so funny?
クスクス
I wonder how the infrastructure in this world came to be?
Those are your first questions?
Don't you have more important things to worry about?
For example...

Does this watch have something to do with it?
Is it being held at the time where the needle's stopped?
No.
It was put into your pocket after you woke up. Even an idiot would intuitively think that.
Correct! You're quite perceptive, aren't 'cha?

If you adjust your clock, you can participate in the game that's being held at the specific date and time of your choice.
The games are held often, Monday through Friday.
We need to participate in at least one game per week, no exceptions.
And if I don't?
You end up participating in Saturday's game.
And that would be disastrous~
"Score"
...
I recommend it to any masochists who want to keep dying, though.
The game is completely pointless!
See, even if everyone's annihilated, it doesn't count towards your score.

She said the count goes down by one every time I kill a person, but...
That's the engraving on my chest, then.
666

If your engraving reaches zero... That is, if you kill 666 people, you'll have a single wish granted.

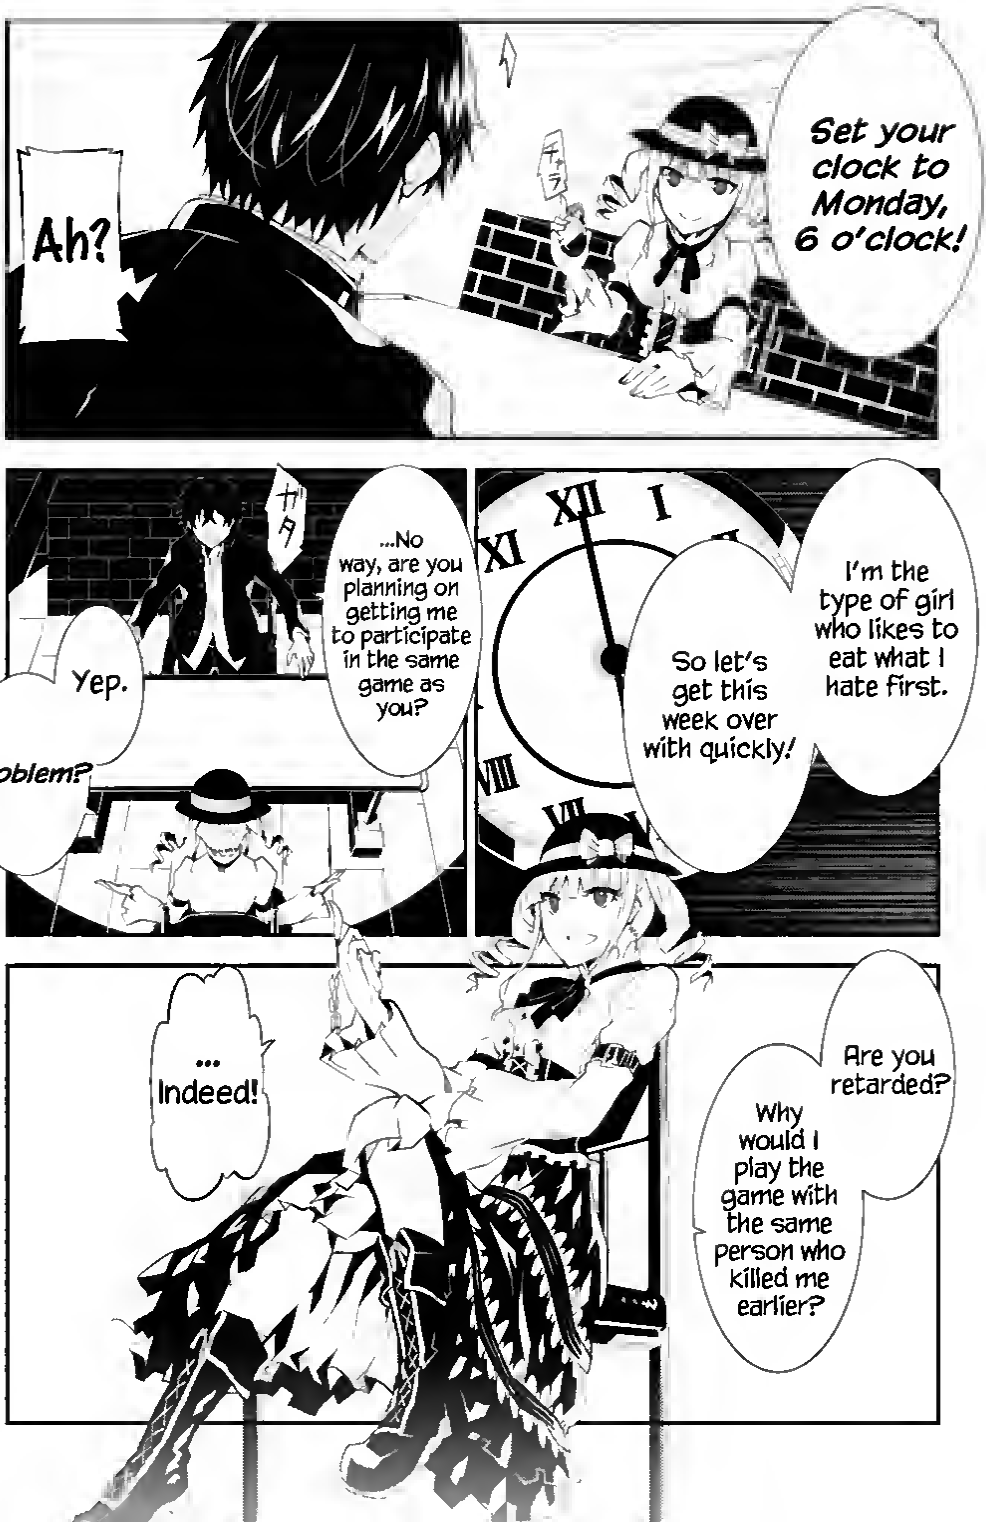
Do you really believe in such a fraud?
Ara~ It's gotten this late already.

What's the basis for all this?
Well, that's what the Dealer tells us, at least.

Ehh...
That means we're being baited into killing each other.
How despicable...



Ah?
Set your clock to Monday, 6 o'clock!
...No way, are you planning on getting me to participate in the same game as you?
Yep.
Problem?
So let's get this week over with quickly!
I'm the type of girl who likes to eat what I hate first.
Are you retarded?
Why would I play the game with the same person who killed me earlier?
... Indeed!

ビキッ
Are you afraid of losing to me twice?
...So you're looking to raise your score by killing me again, huh?
...How amusing!
カチ

Er...
.....

...I'd like to confirm before the game begins, so...
There's a total of five people, including me.
I guess this is where the game's happening.

...I see.
Is there anyone here who wants to live?
We're all resurrected unless we're all annihilated. So, anyone who plans on living would be an obstacle.
The same thing probably happened in the game before.
So he's checking to see who intends on living.
Yep!!
That means the right thing to do here is to keep quiet-

ズビシ
Er... huh?
Of course I don't wanna dieee~♪
What? Does everyone wanna die then~?
...We've got an idiot.
This girl's gonna get killed first.
Let's be a bit more positive~!
There's a ton of stuff to do if we're alive!
I don't know what kind of game we're getting into, but she's definitely going to be targeted by everyone

Eh...
Oooh~ We should be friends ...!
I'm gonna live too.
I'll increase my chances of survival by letting them confront each other, and then-ニマー
No matter what game it'll be, I want to avoid annihilation at all costs.
It's extremely unfavorable for me if the ones who want to live are eliminated.

We're killling each other! We're gonna die! I don't want that to happen anymore.
Do you guys realize the situation we're in!?
What ...
Well then, maybe I'll join them too.
Um... Where am I?
Eh...!
Ow...
A new player I guess. There are many people who arrive late like this after just committing suicide!
And she is?
Urg...

I see. So that's it...
Even though I'm sure I died, being alive in a place like this...
That's already odd in itself, so... I guess it's happening now.
No, I believe you.
Well, you probably can't believe that we're going to be playing a game of killing now, but...
Senpuku Prim here! Please to meet youuu~
Let's do our best to survive!
I'm Hakuchouge Shirahime.

I'm Sakai Hiroaki.
... Kagamiya Kagami.
Be careful of those two.
They don't have the will to live.
In order for them to die, we have to die as well.
You'll be killed if you're careless.

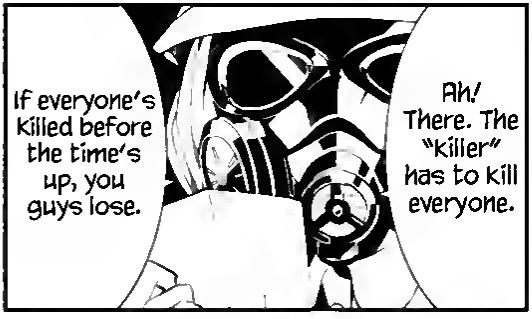
"Repel the Killer!"
Erm... I'll explain the rules!
"Killer" ...?
"One of you guys"... Just what in the world are you talking about?
Killer
The time limit is until midnight on Friday. If you figure out who the "killer" is before then, you guys win.
One of you guys will be the "killer." You guys will have to figure out who the "killer" is.

Silence...!
I'm explaining it right now, so shut up!!



Ah! There. The "killer" has to kill everyone.
If everyone's killed before the time's up, you guys lose.

Ugh-Erm... Where did I stop reading at...

You're all annihilated.
There's no resurrection.
On the other hand, if the "killer" doesn't manage to kill everyone, they lose.

The game will happen through the operation of these devices.
Each of you pick up one of these devices, please.
Yep.
Did you power that on yet?
Ooh! This... is the first time I've ever touched a tablet!
On that note, only the owner of the device can see their own screen.
Those are the points you currently have.
Ordinary people get one each, and the "killer" gets five.
Please press the "Score" button.

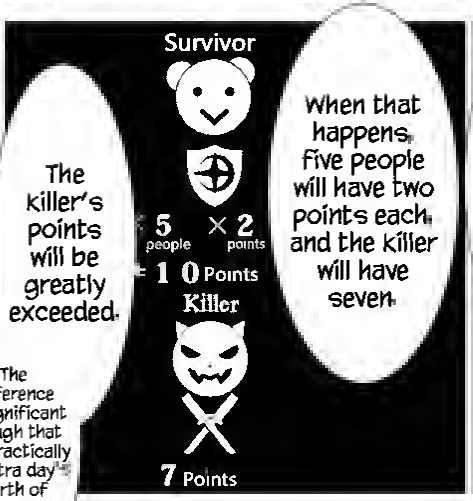
This is probably gonna be a long journey... I give up.
I seeee~

Ah! I didn't get that at all either!
Frankly, there was one thing I couldn't understand just now, that is... What exactly are we supposed to do now?



Survivor
5 people × 2 points

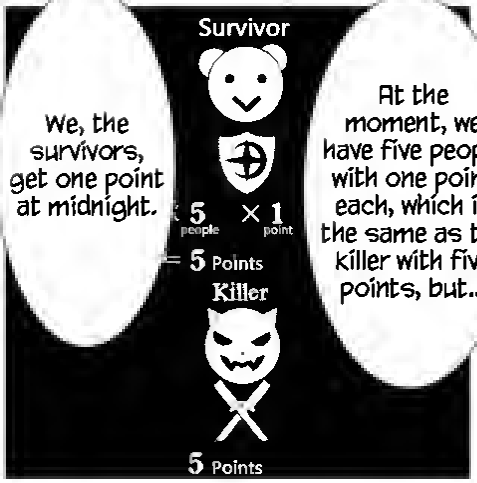
Killer
7 Points
The Killer's points will be greatly exceeded.
When that happens, five people will have two points each, and the killer will have seven.
The difference is significant enough that it's practically an extra day's worth of points for the killer



Survivor

= 5 Points
Killer
5 Points
We, the survivors, get one point at midnight.
At the moment, we have five people with one point each, which is the same as the killer with five points, but...

Note: They haven't spent any points yet. The rooms started off unlocked.

The killer will want to kill us as quickly as possible!
ニヘラ
Are you stupid?
I seeee~ This'll be an easy victory then, hm~? ♪
Think about the apparatuses a little!
In other words...
On top of that, they can't reveal their true identity either.
Precisely. The killer is in such a disadvantage since time itself is against them.
Simply put...
Knowing that, they have no choice but to kill us while we're in our rooms between midnight and six in the morning.

One of us... the killer... will be trying to kill as many people tonight, even if they're fighting solo.

That's...
Ugh...
"If [illegible] by the "killer," you're all annihilated. There's no resurrection."
In terms of this world, that's true death.
I won't say that death isn't scary.
However, what I'm more afraid of is dying from a loss.

I will definitely win...
I won't lose, even if I perish!
